SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1885.

EX-SENATOR HILL ON SILVER.

Next to Senator Jones, of our own State, ex-Senator Hill, of Colorado, is good authority on the silver question, and when he says there is vital objection to increasing the weight of the silver dollar we agree with him. "No one can tell yet what the new ratio between silver and gold should be. If we should increase the weight of silver, and there should then be a slight advance in the price of silver in the market, which is almost sure to occur, your coinage would all disappear, as the bullion would command a premium. If, on the other hand, silver should further decline, you would still be coining what is called a debased dollar. One fact everybody is bound to admit, and that is that the production of gold has fallen so much that it is below the actual demands for consumption in the arts, including the demands from Asia. My belief is that the silver production, which has declined slightly, will decline still more. The great silver mines of the world seem to be exhausted, and there are no indications yet than any others will take their place. It is only twelve years since silver commanded a premium over gold, and it will not be at all surprising if within ten years it should do so again. If there was an immediate danger of any disparity between our silver and gold coin, I should favor some change, but it is perfectly safe to say that we can continue to coin silver for the next fifteen years at the present rate without bringing any depression in the value of our silver coin. Long before that time the course which this country should pursue will become perfectly clear." Of all the plans that have been proposed for a compromise, none of them are satisfactory to Senator Hill's mind. The proper policy is to wait, and the silver problem will settle itself. With so many uncertainties as to what the future will bring, it seem to him it would be exceedingly unwise to attempt, at this time, to finally settle our monetary policy with regard to silver. And with the example of France before us, where $537,000,000 of silver are kept on an exact par with gold, to say that we are going to be "all broken up" with $200,000,000 is, in his judgment, all nonsense. "No," the Senator repeated, "it will not be possible to stop the coinage of silver at this session, in my judgment."

The report of Postmaster-General Vilas makes no mention of his confidential circular to Democratic Congressmen giving plans and specifications for putting the Republican Postmasters out. Vilas ought to cover this important matter in a postscript.

Now we shall get at the true inwardness of the refusal of Italy and Austria to receive Minister Keiley, as the Senate, acting on a resolution offered by Vest, has requested the President to produce all correspondence on the subject.

The Eureka Sentinel says: There is a good deal of unnecessary talk on the part of State and outside papers concerning Nevada being on the verge of bankruptcy. The Reno Journal very pointedly states the situation.

San Francisco's 3,100 saloons yield a revenue of $208,540. The local press points out that, with high license, the sum would be increased to $1,860,000; or, if half the saloons were shut, to $930,000.

Congressman Warner, of Ohio, predicts that the coinage of silver will not be discontinued by the Forty-ninth Congress. It ought not to be by either the Forty-ninth or Ninety-ninth.

The Sandwich Islands are for sale for $14,500,000. The property consists of two sugar houses, one extinct volcano and 700 cases of leprosy, all in middling repair.

Colonel "Bob" Ingersoll is about to establish his residence in New York City. He has been employed as counsel by a railroad corporation.

Warring on Polygamy.

Edmunds has a bill to put the Mormons in chancery. It proposes that the Act of the Legislature of the State of Deseret, under the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints was incorporated, shall be repealed and annulled, and that the temporal affairs of the church shall be managed by a Board of Trustees to be appointed by the President of the United States by and with the consent of the Senate, and shall close up the institution as rapidly as possible under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior. The Attorney General is directed to institute and prosecute proceedings to forfeit and escheat to the United States all property owned by the Mormon Church, except the buildings used for public worship, and the Secretary of the Interior is directed to sell and invest the proceeds for the benefit of the public schools. "The Perpetual Emigrant Fund Company" are also annulled, and the Attorney General is directed to dissolve the corporation, to pay its debts, to dispose of its property and devote the proceeds to the benefit of the schools. The Legislature is forbidden to create any company or association for the purpose of bringing emigrants into the Territory.

A Very Important Decision.

The Ohio Supreme Court has decided the case of Scofield, Schurver & Teague against the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway in favor of the plaintiffs. They are independent oil refiners of Cleveland and sought to enjoin the railroad company from granting the Standard Oil Company lower rates for carrying oil from Cleveland west than it granted them. They claimed that lower rates were given the Standard Oil Company by giving them a rebate on the regular tariff. The case was decided by Judge Blanden of the Cuyahoga Common Pleas, and the question raised was resumed in the District Court and the case brought direct to the Supreme Court where it was argued a few weeks ago and has just been decided in favor of the firm.

Chicago is preparing a royal reception for Mr. Parnell and associates on January 20, 1886. The reception committee made up includes the Governor of the State, the two Senators, the Mayor of the city, Judges of the Federal and County Courts, the Catholic Archbishop, Vicar General, several Protestant ministers, some Aldermen, the Justices of the Peace, county and city officials, editors of the daily newspapers, Presidents of the Irish societies, officers of the militia and many prominent citizens. This Committee will go out on a special train to meet Parnell.

The ladies of the new Democratic Administration have promptly begun to show an interest in local charities, and Secretary Endicott's wife and Secretary Whitney's wife will in person preside at the tea-table when the "kettledrum and bazar" to aid the Garfield Memorial Hospital are given in Washington the middle of December. Senator Logan's wife is the President of the Ladies' Aid Association, which has undertaken this entertainment, and she is working for its success with her customary energy.

John Roach's steel cruiser Dolphin, now lying at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, has been put in readiness for the longest sea trip that she has ever made. It will be the final test trial, and, in order that it may be thorough, the vessel has been placed in the hands of an entirely different crew from that which manned her on the previous trips. Captain Meade will be in command, and the other officers have been taken from the League Island Navy Yard at Philadelphia.

The registered 4 1/2 per cent. bonds of the United States are apparently held by 11,964 persons or corporations, as that is the number of checks sent out in payment of $2,740,642 in quarterly interest on the 1st of December.

The President Thursday sent to the Senate for confirmation the names of about 500 persons appointed during the recess of Congress.

President Cleveland is said to be worth about $100,000.

The Question of Confirmation.

The matter of confirming Presidential appointments by the Senate has been quietly talked over by the Republican Senators. It is stated on the best authority that the Republican Senators have decided to reject any appointment which is personally offensive to any Republican Senator. No other reason will be asked for refusing confirmation. It is also stated that the appointment of Tinnin is offensive to several of the Senators from the Pacific Coast. The Senators from California and Nevada protested against appointment, and since it was made the feeling among the Republican Senators in regard to confirming such an appointment has been ascertained. It is also stated that the appointment of W. G. Langford of Walla Walla to be United States Judge is objectionable to one of the Senators from Oregon.

The First Step.

The Sacramento Record-Union says: Since it has been so widely advertised throughout the State that two young ladies had started a laundry in Santa Cruz, and that their venture was crowned with financial success, white women all over California have gone into the business, and find that the citizens are glad to make a change, and are transferring their washing from Mongol wash-houses to American laundries. A great many would say, "well, why did they not do so before?" They have attempted it often, but were unsuccessful. The Chinese had a monopoly of the business, would wash all day and iron all night, and the poor washerwoman was forced to find other employment. The recent Chinese agitation has wrought wonders in this matter, and now every person who can is endeavoring to find a place where he can get his linen washed by white women. Especially so is this the case in this city, and yesterday almost as many little girls were to be seen on the streets with laundered linen, returning the same to the owners, as were Chinamen. One gentleman who came into the editorial rooms of this office yesterday, said he knew of at least a dozen families who had been dependent upon the charity of friends and the donations of benevolent associations, who were now able to support themselves comfortably by this industry. The clothes they wash, they said, are free from the dingy, smoky, Chinese smell we have become so accustomed to, the little rips are neatly sewn up, missing buttons replaced, and we are reminded of the good old days when the labor was performed by honest women. This is the first round in the ladder that is supposed to reach that point from which it is said "the Chinese must go."

Enormous Cattle.

Exchange.

At the fat stock show in Chicago, John D. Gillett, of Logan county, Illinois, exhibited a Shorthorn steer that weighed twenty-two hundred pounds. J. K. McGregor, of Ohio, exhibited a steer seven years old, of the following dimensions: Height, 6 feet 4 inches. Girth, 11 feet 4 inches. Between hip points, 8 feet 4 inches. From tip to tip, 18 feet. This steer is three-quarters Shorthorn and one-quarter old Patton stock. His owner says he enjoys excellent health and is still growing. He will pay $1,000 to anyone who can produce his equal. Mr. McGregor also shows a cow of the Teaswater breed, three years old, thirty-four inches high, weighs 350 pounds and gives three gallons of milk a day. He claims that she is the smallest cow in the United States.

A Horrifying Tragedy.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—A horrible tragedy occurred about 11:15 A. M. in room 15 of the Nevada Block. John A. Benson, a surveyor of public lands, and well-known throughout the State, was found lying on the floor with his throat cut, and within a few feet of him was a man named Brown, said to be from Wyoming Territory, lying dead from the effects of a bullet from a revolver. The entrance to the Nevada Block is besieged by an immense crowd of people eagerly inquiring for the particulars of the terrible deed.

Sheriff Dan Donovan and John Brady came down from Virginia last night.

Commissioner Frank Folsom, of Storey, was a passenger for the Bay last night.

Thirty-one car loads of mutton sheep were shipped to San Francisco last night.

T. H. Goodman, General Passenger Agent of the Central Pacific, was on the west-bound train last night.

H. S. Mason and wife arrived from Mason Valley on the noon train yesterday, and departed for the Bay last night.

Indian Agent Gibson came up from Pyramid last night on his way to Carson. The Big Chief has been troubled of late with violent palpitation of the heart.

The Directors of the State Agricultural Society will hold a meeting to-day for the purpose of considering their report to the Governor. It has been prepared and is ready for the printer.

Complimentary Notice.

The greatest consolation to one growing old, is the improved surroundings which come with age, experience and wisdom.

We are reminded of this fact by the appearance of the new Seed Annual of D. M. Ferry & Co., the celebrated seedsmen of Detroit, Mich. (They enjoy the enviable reputation of being the widest and best known firm, in any business in the United States.) Millions of people gardening both for profit and pleasure, have found ever increasing satisfaction and delight in using their seeds.

Every one desiring seeds of the highest type and best quality, should secure their Annual. It is sent free on application.

About the Weather.

The Silver State says:

Old settlers notice a similarity between the weather this Winter and that of 1867-8. Then the weather was mild and heavy rains fell at intervals during November and December. On Christmas day, 1867, there was a heavy rain storm, and the snow melted on the mountains, except on the highest peaks. On January 2d it commenced snowing, and the storm continued until the snow was over a foot deep in the valleys. The storm was followed by severe cold and the stages went on runners from Unionville to Idaho for five or six weeks. At that time there were not very many cattle in the county; white sage was abundant in many of the valleys, and stock did not suffer for feed. Now the white sage is fed close, and if the months of January and February ensuing should be as severe as in 1868, cattle will suffer unless they are fed hay.

The Light Fantastic.

The Riverside Club has elected Judge King, President; A. A. Evans, Vice President; H. P. Kraus, Secretary; C. T. Bender, Treasurer. These officers and Pierce Evans, H. J. Thyges and J. F. Aitken comprise the Executive Committee.

Feasting on Rabbits.

The Silver State says:

The Indians are living high on jack-rabbits—in fact, feasting on the fat of the land. The rabbits are very numerous west of the river, and the Piute hunters shoot hundreds of them almost every day. Yesterday a company of these hunters, some mounted and some afoot, marched up the street armed with Springfield muskets and enveloped with rabbits. Some had a dozen of them suspended from their waists.

The Appeal says:

A few white laboring men desirous to obtain work, have formed into a committee to ascertain how many Chinese are employed in Ormsby and Douglas counties.

"The Chinese Must Go."

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly

For December opens with a very timely article called "Another Bit of Turkey." It has no reference to Thanksgiving, but to the annexation of Roumelia by the Prince of Bulgaria. This unexpected seizure of another bit of Turkey, and the events that have followed, required explanations. In this article Mr. Oscanyan, (formerly Turkish Consul-General thoroughly versed in the system of Oriental rule, gives a clear view of the Province and its people, as well as Bulgaria. "The Shakers in Niskayuna," is a sketch by a lady of that curious community, accompanied by a fine series of illustrations. "The Story of Napoleon Bonaparte's Divorce from the Empress Josephine" is told by Noel Ruthven in a way to excite the reader's warmest sympathy with the amiable lady whom a husband's ambition compelled to descend from the throne. Walter S. Baillie describes and illustrates a little-known part of our hemisphere in his attractive "Glimpses of South Brazil," while Lieutenant Winder, of the Navy, carries us back to the days of Robinson Crusoe, in his "Rescue of the Trinity's Crew"—the story of the crew of an American vessel lost on a rarely visited island in the Antarctic Ocean. Ackroyd's scenic article on "Whirlpools and Whirlwinds" explains the origin of those deadly forces in nature which so frequently compel us to record their destructive ravages. The lighter elements in the magazine, the fine illustrations, the stories by Mrs. E. B. Duffey, O. M. Boutelle, R. C. Meyers, Laurence Germaine, with the poetic and other miscellany, make the number from every point of view extremely attractive. Published by Mrs. Frank Leslie, 53, 55, and 57 Park Place, New York City, at 25 cents a number, or $3 00 a year, postpaid.

Morsels of Gastronomy.

New York Mail and Express.

To cut an oyster, says a gastronomic authority, is to make it indigestible.

The hotel cook whose duties include the making of entrees is rarely conscientious.

Terrapin are declared by those who ought to know to be scarcer every gastronomic year.

A liberal diet of fish is said to have cured Bismarck of obesity, but whether whales were included or not does not appear.

"When all the other pleasures of life have left us," said Savaria, "the pleasures of the table remain to console us for their loss."

Among seasonable soups is the puree of chestnuts, not necessarily an old story, for it can by no means be called a common soup.

"Chicken with rice, a la Pooh-Bah," on the bill of fare of a celebrated restaurant uptown, is another amusing reminder of "The Mikado."

Croquettes of fish are served at many fashionable dinner-parties instead of fish proper, and the caterers say the change is quite successful.

Nearly all the varieties of duck most prized by bouis vivants and epicures will soon be in season, and great will be the consumption thereof.

One of the young lady members of a Boston cooking school is a heroine because she actually was seen to eat a dish of her own preparation.

Frog legs and fried apples are recommended by an exchange as a "good breakfast dish." The attention of Colonel Sellers should be called to this.

Now is the time when country newspapers, in view of the approach of Christmas, tell subscribers how to make genuine pumpkin and mince pies.

Lucullus said oysters increase the blood without heating the system, and Dr. Benac, of bygone years, declared oysters to be the most nourishing of food.

One of the caterers to the crowds at an English race issued a "refreshment list," which enumerated: "Cataracts of coffee, mountains of pork pies, yards of ox tongues, barricades of buns, rockeries of cake, avalanches of pastry, and torrents of milk."

The papers in counties outside the Capital, seem to awake to the proposition that the whole State is interested in the Mint question.

As they should, and if the JOURNAL can help Carson get the Mint back it will gladly do so.

The Eureka Sentinel remarks:

It is said that polygamists are thick in the lower part of Lincoln county, and that they practice polygamy with impunity in free Nevada.

The only claim that W. M. Stewart has to the Senatorship of Nevada, is that he was one of the counsel for ex-Senator Sharon in his trouble with Miss Hill.—Pioche Record.

How to Catch Cold.

Philadelphia Times.

Sit in a street car next to an open window.

Leave off your heavy underclothing on a mild October day.

Take a hot drink before going out into the cold or damp air.

Sit in the passage or near an entry after dancing for half an hour.

Sit in a barber shop in your shirt sleeves while waiting to be shaved.

Wear your light-weight Summer hosiery through October and November.

Put on a pair of thin shoes in the evening when you go to call on your girl.

Fail to change your shoes and stockings after coming in on a very rainy day.

Have your hair cut and shampooed just as a change takes place in the weather.

Wear one of the new ladies' cutaway coats without a chamois or flannel vest underneath.

Throw your overcoat open on a blustering Winter day to show off your nice new necktie.

Send your children out in Autumn for exercise in short, thin stockings and skimpy skirts.

Leave off your rough overcoat when you go driving, and wear your nice thin one, to look swell.

Go to the front door in a cobweb dress, and linger, bidding good night to your favorite young man.

Take hot bath in the evening and sit up in your room to finish the last pages of an exciting novel.

Throw off your heavy coat when you reach the office in a hurry and put on your thin knock-about.

Go down to breakfast without a wrap on a chilly morning before the fires have got fully started.

Put the window of your sleeping-room up before you go to bed, especially if the window is near the bed.

Run a square to catch a street car and take off your hat a few moments to cool off when you catch it.

Go out into the lobby during a theatrical performance and promenade around without your overcoat.

Do your back hair up high when you have been accustomed to wear it low and go out on a windy day.

Take a long bicycle ride and stand for a while describing and showing off the beauties of your machine.

Come in from a rapid gallop on horseback and stand talking in the open air to a friend for five or ten minutes.

Go to an evening party in a dress suit without putting on heavy underwear to compensate for the lightness of the cloth.

If you are bald-headed or have a susceptible back, sit during grand opera near one of the side doors in the Academy of Music.

Wear a thin vest of fancy pattern that protrudes a little below the coat and allows a part of the body that should always be warm to get chilled.

Proverbs of the Pantry.

Chicago Mail.

Discretion is the proper sauce for cheese.

The real gourmand is hardly ever under 30.

A bad dinner is often redeemed by a good salad.

All should profit by the aid of the cook—except the apothecary.

When a man loses interest in his heart he begins to study his stomach.

It is useless to make love to a female gourmand. Cupid never lives in the liver.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-sw1-1yr
